

Next Week

Please note that next Friday school is closed to pupils for our training day. Thank You.

This Week

Attendance

This week our Autumn 100% attenders received their prize. Who knew that fluffy pens would be so popular!

If you have received a letter inviting you to an attendance meeting next week please let the office or Mrs Sutcliffe know if you are able to attend. These meetings are an important opportunity to discuss the reasons for attendance issues and to look at support and actions that will improve attendance rapidly.

Church

Each class shared their hopes for the year in Church on Tuesday. We have high hopes for our school, ourselves, family, community, country and world. My hope is that the children's hopes are realised this year. I would like to thank Mr Edwards, Mrs Wheatley and Mrs Eastwood for deputising in my absence and I would also like to thank Mrs Swaine who leads on collective worship in school.

Year 2 Writing Recipe!

We know that our pupils love baking and eating cake. We also know that the best writing happens when children have real experiences to write about. Miss Pritchard combined these things this week to inspire some great Year 2 baking and writing.

Tennis

Year 1-3 enjoyed a tennis coaching session on Thursday by a coach from John Charles Sports Centre. Watching their progress, we may even have the next Andy Murray in school!

Year 4 are Iron Age Detectives!

Year 4 are really enjoying their topic. I have seen some fantastic Iron Age tools in class made by the children and this week they have been undertaking their own research.

Ofsted

I am fortunate that we are judged by our parent(s) and carer(s) on more than our Ofsted rating. Looking beyond our rating we have strong results now for the past 2 years and this can be seen clearly on Government Performance Tables <https://www.gov.uk/school-performance-tables>. We continue to provide strong pastoral care for our pupils and lessons that engage and excite. Our children are happy and when they are not we do whatever we can so that they enjoy school and thrive. Naturally we want to secure a good Ofsted grading and are working hard to make this happen as you will know from our weekly newsletters. Once again I want to thank you for your support and for knowing that schools are much more than their last Ofsted grading.

School telephone number and email address

Please be aware the school has a new telephone number as follows – 0113 8591842 and also has a new email address of info@holytrinityce.co.uk
